Privacy Policy:

All conversation records are the property of Transibot and by using Transibot you agree that we may store them indefinitely. Our data is securely stored in the AWS Canada region. We will never sell, publicize, or release your location information tied to your Facebook identity, unless legally required to under Canadian law. We reserve the right to publish aggregated anonymized information and to perform analytics on all conversation records.

Terms of Use:

By using Transibot you agree to our privacy policy, which specifies how we manage our conversation records. You also agree that we are not responsible for inaccurate or outdated information, which is beyond our control and so we bear no fault or responsibility for any damages that may occur. Note that we only display real-time information, which may differ significantly from schedules and is not always available. For the most accurate and up-to-date schedules, routes, and stop-locations, please contact your local transit agency.
